SUNDAY..... JUNE 7, 1857.

DEMOCRATIC WARD MEETING IN FIRST DISTRICT.

The Democracy of the First and Second Wards will meet on Tuesday night, at the house of Frank Henniburger, on Green street, between Hancock and Clay streets.

A full attendance of the Democracy, and all who intend to act with them, is earnestly requested.

Thos. H. Holt, Esq., our Standard-bearer.

Meeting at Headquarters.

We take pleasure in announcing to the Democracy of Louisville and Jefferson county that Thos. H. Holt, Esq., will address the Young Men's Democratic Association at their hall on Fifth street, on next.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 19,

the regular meeting of the Club.

It is time we were fully organized and in the field.

We need not urge the party to rally to "Headquarters" to hear the eloquent Holt. He goes into the canvas with an energy that must win. It will do the Democracy good to hear him.

Mons. C. Colliere.—Our musical reader will recollect that, some two weeks ago, we stated that a movement was on foot to secure M. Colliere to the interests of music in this city. By reference to his card, in this morning's paper, it will be seen he has come to reside among us, and devote his time to instruction in vocal music. We welcome him to our midst as a master in his vocation, and earnestly recommend to those who wish to perfect themselves in vocal music to secure a place under his tuition. His abilities are of the first order, and the reputation he has acquired elsewhere is a sufficient guarantee that he will succeed here.

The Reformed Dutch Church at Schuylerville, Saratoga county, N. Y., was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Tuesday, 2d of June. Rev. Dr. Wyckoff was expected to preach on the occasion.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Rev. J. W. Cracraft has resigned the Rectory of St. Paul's, Peoria, and accepted an invitation to Chicago.

Rev. T. M. Cunningham, late of Carondelet, Missouri, was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, on the 7th.

A Boston paper giving a puff to a new minstrel company, says—"A printer at the close of his sermon was the most eloquent ever addressed to a Boston audience."

Rev. Joseph Wolfe, in an eccentric letter recently published, says that a society in London was worked nearly fifty years and spent nearly $500,000, and yet has converted "only two Jews and half."

The Congregational Church in Westford, Windham county, Ct., is closed on account of a disagreement between the pastor and the people.

The clergy refuse to leave, and as the people have sold out to the church, he preaches regularly in his own house.

The Presbytery of Greenbrier have licensed Mr. Wm. T. Price, late of Union Theological Seminary, Virginia.

A minister residing and preaching in Waupaca county, Wisconsin, of previously good moral character, recently stole some provisions near Ripon, Wisconsin. He gave as his reason for his conduct, that he had been preaching for which he had received nothing, until he was advised of the necessity of taking the property of others.

No prosecution was commenced against him for the offense, but a half of the flour was given him and he went on his way.

Rev. George Guyer has been appointed, by Bishop Wauchope, to the presiding eldership of the Cumberland, Pa., district Methodist Episcopal Church, made vacate by the death of Rev. John A. Collins.

The London Times, of May 6, says: "Whoever he became a priest of the Church of Rome a few years since, was a benefited clergyman."—The Church of England and Archdeacon of Chichester, has sent to Rome to present himself in all the details of the ecclesiastical system of the Roman Church, and has now received from the Pope the appointment of a canon and provost of the Church in Horseye road, Westminster. Yesterday morning the reverend gentleman presented himself for installation at St. Mary's, where he was received by Cardinal Wiseman in his robes, and by the priests and other officers of the establishment.

The service was conducted in Latin. The new prelate, however, did not remain long in Rome, and returned to England.

As this laudable undertaking is for the benefit of a free church, we hope it will be liberally patronized by our citizens.

COME AT LAST.—We suppose we may not be premature in congratulating the people of Louisville on the arrival of summer—better late than never. Ice creams, lemonades, promenades, moonlight nights, ecstatic delights, like blue cooings, etc., etc., will be the order of business for sometime.

Last night was one of those dream-inspiring nights, calm, clear and cool enough to be delicious—exactly fitted to make a misanthrope dream that all mankind were angels and himself an archangel.

Mozart Hall.—We feel almost ashamed to say, but the fact is that the attendance last night was again small. We cannot understand why our people have so neglected Miss Stanley: suppose, however, they have gone into one of their tantrums. We begin to think if she had fixed the price of tickets at one or two dollars, instead of fifty cents, she would have had full houses. The people in this city delight in paying extravagant prices for everything except newspapers.

"I" We ask the perusal of a pleasant little story, in six chapters, appearing on the first page of the Democrat this morning. It is from the pen of a young gentleman of our city, who is actively engaged in business, but whose leisure moments are profably spent in self-culture, and not unfrequently in giving some pleasant little effusion, conveying a useful home-lesson to "the people of the world."

The Mayor of Pittsburg, on Wednesday, fined the steamers Endeavor and Nathaniel Holmes each in the sum of ten dollars for violation of an ordinance which requires all pig metal discharged from boats to be placed on the wharf, between Ferry and Penn streets. The complaint was made by Wharfmaster Forsyth.

It is.—As the weather is becoming warmer, and the red hot summer time approaches, we learn to regard that best of luxuries, ice, as one of the necessities of life. An abundant supply of the frozen element is carefully stowed away to supply our denizens who may send forward their orders for a supply.

"I" Several young ladies took the white veil at the Catholic Church in Spring Garden street, between Twelfth, Philadelphia, on Sunday morning last. Many spectators were present, attracted by the sight, which really was of an interesting character.

Count de Sartiges, Mr. Dolljus, and Mr. Paul, of the French Legion; Chevalier Bosch Spencer, of the Belgian Legion; and Judge Dab, of New York, are among the notables in our city. They are stopping at the Gallo House.

ABUSING HIS WIFE.—Geo. Felker was up in the Police Court yesterday for abusing and maltreating his wife, the offense was proven against him, and he was required to give bail in $200 for three months, to behave himself.

HARD CASES.—Mary Roland and Maria Johnson, two street-walkers, were before the court yesterday for being drunk and disorderly. In default of bail, they were sent to the cage for two months.

"I" We are requested to state that the Medical Club of the Eastern District will meet at the Hook and Ladder Company's hall, Floyd street, on Monday, June 8.

ANOTHER.—D. Matfield had been abusing his family, and was held to bail in $300 to be of good behavior for the period of six months.

"I" John, a negro of W. S. Thompson's, was arrested for attempting to pass counterfeit money, but was discharged by the Court.

Religious Intelligence.

SERVICES TO-DAY.

The Rev. Dr. Stratton, of Natchez, will preach this morning, at 11 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Walnut and Eleventh streets, and also at 8 o'clock, p. m.

CHRIST CHURCH.—The Rector of Christ Church will deliver a lecture this evening on "Church Parties." Service to commence at 8 o'clock. All the seats are free.

Rev. H. A. Hunter, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of this city, will preach in Seaton Chapel, Third street, this morning, at 11 o'clock, and also at 8 o'clock, p. m. The pub-lic are invited. Seats free.

Rev. Cyrus Kingsbury, for many years missionary among the Indians, will preach in the First Presbyterian Church, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Right Rev. Bishop McGill, of Richmond, Va., will preach this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Cathedral.

Elder Rogers will preach this morning at 11 o'clock at the Hancock street Christian Church.

We need not urge the party to rally to "Headquarters" to hear the eloquent Holt. He goes into the canvas with an energy that must win. It will do the Democracy good to hear him.

INVITATIONS.

Rev. W. A. Fleming has accepted a call from the Church of Lewistown, Illinois.

Rev. I. N. Shannon has accepted a call from the Church of Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Rev. F. N. Ewing has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church in Bloomington, Illinois.

Horace James, of Worcester, Massachusetts, has declined a call, received several weeks since, from the Vine Street Church in Cincinnati.

NEW CHURCHES.

A very neat and tasteful church, in Salem, Ind., was dedicated on Tuesday last to Catholic worship. Right Rev. Dr. Spalding, of this city, conducted the service.

The Reformed Dutch Church at Schuylerville, Saratoga county, N. Y., was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Tuesday, 2d of June. Rev. Dr. Wyckoff was expected to preach on the occasion.

The Great Railroad Festival.

PLANTER'S HOUSE, ST. LOUIS, JUNE 5, P. M.

MESSRS. EDITORS: It is a source of gratification and pride to your correspondent that he has been permitted to participate in one of the most imposing spectacles in the history of the West. The ceremonies incident to the opening of the Ohio and Mississippi road will mark an era in the lives of those who were so fortunate as to mingle in the delightfully exciting ovation, and the event itself is well worthy of a place in the encyclopedias of remarkable events.

I was not so fortunate as to form one of the number of the band of Baltimoreans who, initiating these ceremonies upon the Atlantic shore early in the week, enjoyed the first glories of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company at Cincinnati, on Wednesday; but you have had the detailed accounts of the glories of the expedition from its incipiency, and are only ignorant of the events of to-day, in this city, which seems to be the culminating point and occasion in the celebration.

It would be a pleasant task to detail the many little incidents in the celebration from the time your correspondent joined a pleasant party of railroad men and citizens at the office of the A. & S. Railroad, in Louisville, and proceeded in omnibus, led by Capt. Plato's band, to New Albany. And it would be all the more pleasant to relate whole pages of eulogy upon the life, character, and services of such men as Col. Bliven, agent of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, Mr. John B. Anderson, Superintendent of the New Albany and Salem road, Mr. E. Norton, the freight agent, Mr. Stevens, the general ticket agent, and many other less lights who compose a transporting association of rare merit in our city.

With no other sensation than that of pleasure, we reached the junction of the New Albany & Salem and Ohio & Mississippi Railroads, at Mitchell, about 12 o'clock yesterday, when and where one Biggs, of the "Biggs House," had prepared a dinner, which was great in quality, though it lacked in quantity. The two trains numbered about twenty cars, with no less than one thousand excursionists.

The two trains arrived from Cincinnati, about 11 o'clock, and prepared a dinner, which was great in quality, though it lacked in quantity. The two trains numbered about twenty cars, with no less than one thousand excursionists.
